

BLACKSBURG

The Most Exciting Town in Virginia

Are you looking for a place where nature surrounds you at all turns, yet the cultural and recreational amenities of a metropolitan area are right at your fingertips? That place exists and it's right here in Blacksburg, Virginia.

We are a progressive community that believes our strongest assets lie in the people that make up our great town. Blacksburg is the home of Virginia Tech, the largest land grant university in the State of Virginia, and one of the nation's preeminent research institutions. Virginia Tech is also well known for their championship Division I athletic programs. The nationally recognized Blacksburg Electronic Village was born in our town and continues to prosper as demands for new technologies lead our lives.

In Blacksburg you will find safe and friendly neighborhoods, miles of winding bike and walking trails, the beauty of the New River and Blue Ridge Mountains, golfing for the enthusiast, fine dining, shopping, and a welcoming downtown atmosphere.

So grab a cup of coffee at the corner cafe, plug in your laptop, and make plans to bike the Huckleberry Trail in the morning, and canoe the New River in the afternoon. Your search is over, visit Blacksburg today. We Are the Most Exciting Town in Virginia!
